

Mission of the Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust:

To improve the quality of life and quality of health for the financially needy of North Carolina.

Through the POOR AND NEEDY DIVISION, the Trust responds to basic life needs and invests in solutions that improve the quality of life for financially needy residents of Forsyth County. The Poor and Needy Division seeks impact through two program areas: Providing Basic Needs and Increasing Self Reliance.

Providing Basic Needs - alleviating the effects of poverty on daily life by providing health care, shelter, and food.

- By 2011, funding will represent 50-60% of grants awarded annually.
- In this program area, the Trust has chosen health care as the area of emphasis and priority.
- Grants may be awarded for a period of up to three years.

Poor and Needy DIVISION

Increasing Self Reliance - addressing the root causes of poverty and increasing opportunities for individuals and families to achieve and maintain a higher quality of life.

- By 2011, funding will represent 40-50% of grants awarded annually.
- In this program area, the Trust has chosen supportive housing, education, and job training as the areas of emphasis and priority.
- Grants may be awarded for a period of up to five years.

Across its two divisions, the Trust is committed to accelerating positive movement on critical community issues and effecting enduring systemic change.

The Trust will:

- Engage in partnerships that model collaboration, leverage our capacity, and expand our perspective.
- Design and sponsor programs and initiatives that promote innovation.
- Play multiple roles beyond grantmaking such as education, advocacy, and convening.
- Work with the agencies in which we invest to build sustainable capacity and enhance leadership.
